Dear David,

In checking our records, I do not see any note saying you were notified by us of the location of the named seats for the Class of 1976. In case you were not notified, the location is:

Key to abbreviations:

ORC = Orchestra Level (ground floor)
MEZ = Mezzanine Level (upstairs)
BAL = Balcony Level (highest level upstairs)
C = Center
L = Left
R = Right

Section of Auditorium - Location in Section - Row designation - Seat number: Donor's Last Name: Inscription

ORC-L-K-13: Class of 1976: Class of 1976 – 30-Year Reunion

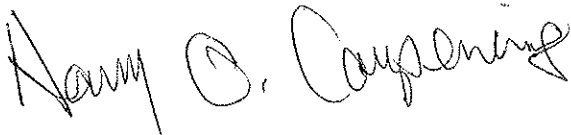

ORC-L-K-15: Class of 1976: Class of 1976 – 30-Year Reunion

For your information, the Auditorium website (www.RJRAuditorium.org) has :

- a picture tour of present-day RJR
- a listing of all of the named seats (alphabetically, by donor)
- an update on some of the on-going construction on campus
- information about some of the GREAT achievements of our school
- the ability to listen to the Fight Song and the Alma Mater
- an update on "The Friends of Richard J. Reynolds Auditorium," and
- much much more.

If you have an e-mail list for your Class, I would appreciate it if you would send out an e-mail suggesting that your fellow classmates take a couple of minutes to tour this site, and re-live the great memories!

MANY THANKS for your kind donation! As we are still raising money to acquire a customized acoustical shell for the Auditorium, I hope you will consider another gift when your Class next gets together.

Chair of the Board of Trustees
